PRESS RELEASE

Crow Wing County Sheriff Todd Dahl reports the body of a 60 year old male from St. Paul was recovered from Adney Lake.

Preliminary reports indicate the male had been swimming near a pontoon with others when he went under water on July 8 at around 3:03 pm. Crow Wing County Boat and Water, Dive Team and the UAS Team responded and searched the afternoon and evening until forced off the water due to an incoming storm. The search teams continued the search on July 9 and were able to locate the victim in approximately 9 feet of water around 1:45 pm.

The victim was transported to the Ramsey County Medical Examiner's Office. The male has been identified as 60 year old, William James Murray of St. Paul, MN. The sheriff's office was assisted by the Crosslake Police Department, CRMC Ambulance and the Minnesota DNR Enforcement.
