PRESS RELEASE

Crow Wing County Sheriff Scott Goddard reports that on February 10 at approx. 1:37 pm, his office received a call from a property owner who reported that he had surveillance cameras on his property which showed 2 males on the deck of his remote cabin and he believes they may have broken into the cabin.

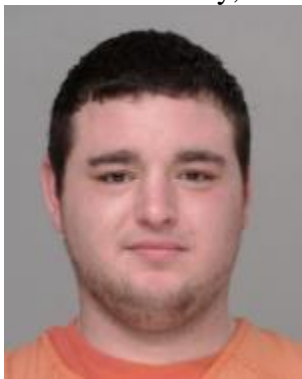

A Crow Wing County Deputy arrived at the property located on the 26000 block of CR #19 and walked into the property where he discovered that the cabin had been forcibly entered. The deputy located 2 individuals inside the cabin sleeping. Both males were arrested for burglary. The suspects' vehicle was located at a neighboring property which contained several items of suspected stolen property which is being held by investigators.

One of the suspects stated that they had broken into another cabin earlier, but he was unsure where the cabin was at, since he was not from the area. Sheriff Goddard is asking the public to check their cabins to see if it has been entered.

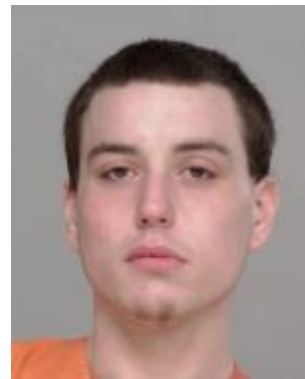

"This is a great example of citizens being vigilant about protecting their property", says Sheriff Goddard.
